The number of the above class at large within the police district in the month of April, 1876, was 625.

There are 3 receivers of stolen property, &c., within the police district, who live solely by buying and selling stolen goods.

Burglaries.

The number of burglaries committed in 1876 was 28, against 22 in 1875, showing an increase of 6 as compared with the latter year. The number of persons arrested for this class of offence in 1876 was 21, against 30 in 1875, and of those so arrested in 1876, 18 were convicted against 12 convicted in 1875. 17 attempts were made to break into warehouses, &c., during the year, against 14 in 1875, being an increase of 3 as compared with the latter year. 7 persons were made amenable by the police for this class of crime, of whom 3 were convicted.

Prostitution.

The number of prostitutes within the police district in 1876 was 493, against 537 in 1875, and 531 in 1874, showing a decrease of 44 as compared with 1875, and of 38 as compared with 1874.

The number of houses occupied or frequented by this class of persons was 131, against 124 in 1875, and 143 in 1874.

Suicides.

13 suicides were committed during the year, against 13 in 1875, and 9 in 1874; the attempts to commit suicide numbered 23, against 41 in 1875, and 29 in 1874.

Inquests.

The number of coroners' inquests held in 1876 was 273, against 292 in 1875, and 279 in 1874, showing a decrease of 19 as compared with 1875, and of 6 as compared with 1874.

The total number of juvenile offenders committed to reformatories was 80, against 72 in 1875, and 104 in 1874; 255 children were transmitted to certified industrial schools during the year, against 246 in 1875, and 184 in 1874. For offences committed by these children—see Table No. 2, pages 12 and 13, also Table 50, page 56.

Money found on Drunken Persons.

6,830 persons were arrested for drunkenness during the year 1876, having money and other valuable property in their possession amounting to £19,078 12s. 8½d., which money and property were handed over by the police to these persons when sober.

Stolen Property Recovered.

The average daily loss sustained by the public from theft or malicious injury is set down at £17 0s. 6d., against £21 13s. 8½d. in 1875, and £23 19s. 9½d. in 1874. The gross loss was £9,490, against £16,177 in 1875, and £14,531 in 1874, and of this sum the police recovered £3,276, against £7,167 in 1875, and £5,775 in 1874. It is necessary to bear in mind that the loss in each case reported to the police is estimated and determined not by them, but by the public who never underrate their loss; and the area of the Dublin Police District is upwards of 43 square miles, and has spread over its surface an incalculable amount of property, exposed and portable. In many instances property reported to the police as stolen or lost turns out to be only mislaid. The recovery in such cases is rarely reported to the police, therefore the loss is not so much as may appear in Table 29. 34½ per cent. of property stolen has been recovered by the police in 1876, against 44½ per cent. in 1875, and 39½ per cent. in 1874. For full details, see Table 29, page 49.

Public Houses.

The total number of public-houses in the police district open for the sale of spirituous liquors in 1876 was 1,008, being a decrease of 4 as compared with 1875 and 1874.

The number of summonses issued against publicans at the suit of the police for violation of the law was 143, against 111 in 1875, and convictions were obtained in 129 cases out of the 143.

Spirit Grocers and Beer Dealers.

The number of spirit grocers within the district in 1876 was 321, being an increase of 20 as compared with 1875. Of that number 158 are suspected of selling contrary to the tenor of their licences. Summonses were issued against 283 spirit grocers for infractions of the law, and convictions followed in 237 cases. The number of beer-shops was 161, being a decrease of 38 as compared with 1875. 103 of these are suspected of selling contrary to the tenor of their licences; 107 summonses were taken out at the instance of the police against beer dealers for violation of the law, and convictions were obtained in 87 cases. There were 152 houses in which liquor was sold without licence within the police district, showing an increase of 52 as compared with 1875. 275 summonses were issued against the owners of these unlicensed houses for selling liquor, &c., and convictions obtained in 245 instances.

Refreshment Houses.

There are 103 coffee shops and other refreshment houses in the police district, showing a decrease of 1 as compared with 1875; 95 of these houses were conducted regularly, and 10 irregularly. There were 38 houses having a wine licence only, within the district; all the latter are regularly conducted.

Deserted Children.

The number of children found deserted by the police and others in 1876 was 29, against 31 in 1875, and 41 in 1874. The number of children found dead by the police and others was 21, against 32 in 1875, and 35 in 1874.

Fires.

There were 51 fires during the year, which destroyed property to the value of £49,697, against 61 fires, with a loss of property amounting to £219,858 in 1875.* The amount saved was £59,795 in 1876, against £68,975 in 1875. There was one life lost by fire in 1876.

Sanitary Proceedings.

The police on sanitary duty within the municipal district during the year visited 48,733 houses, containing 114,010 rooms, and discovered therein 23,285 sanitary defects, and had 22,492 of that number remedied; 4,704 summonses were issued at the suit of the police, and convictions were obtained in 4,700 instances. The police also made 3,049 visits to nightly lodging-houses, 2,478 visits to slaughter-houses, and 1,550 visits to bake-houses during the year.

Hackney Carriages, Drivers, &c.

In the year 1876 there were within the police district 2,133 licensed vehicles, being a decrease of 24 as compared with the year 1875; the 2,133 vehicles consisted of 1,099 hackney carriages, 833 cabriolets, 131 job carriages, and 70 stage carriages (60 of the latter are train cars). There were 2,830 licensed drivers, being a decrease of 11 as compared with the year 1875. A general inspection of all vehicles, and drivers thereof, was held in May, and the inspecting officers reported 1,865 vehicles as fit for public accommodation. There were 67 vehicles not produced; the owners of 9 of these vehicles were fined, 40 were cautioned by the magistrates, and the remaining 18 vehicles were, after a few days, produced by the owners in proper order.

2,030 summonses were issued at the suit of the police for breaches of the Dublin Carriage Regulations, showing a decrease of 438 as compared with 1875; the 2,030 consisted of 953 against owners and drivers of hackney carriages, 1,070 against cabriolet owners and drivers, 6 against owners of job carriages, and 1 against the owner of a stage carriage; the average fine imposed in each hackney carriage summons case was 3s. 2d., in each job carriage summons case 1s., and in the stage carriage case the owner was fined 5s.

549 licensed drivers were arrested by the police during the year for breaches of the carriage laws, &c., whilst in charge of their vehicles; for punishments inflicted in these cases, see Table 52, page 58. As a consequence of such offences as appear in this Table, the Commissioner of Police each year (at the time set apart for renewing drivers' licences), after a review of the drivers' characters, refuses to renew the licences of the worst conducted; some are never again relicensed, others are kept out of their licences for certain periods, according to the gravity of their offences, and are not relicensed until satisfactory proof of amendment is given. The refusal to renew the licence has the effect of throwing the driver idle, and proves to him that a strict account is kept, and that he can only hope to obtain his licence by good conduct. The Commissioner's power in this respect is much feared by drivers, and has the effect of restraining many within bounds who would otherwise be very reckless. This year 35 were refused renewal of their licences, many of whom will not be permitted again to renew, and such of them as may be relicensed must be entitled to consideration for honesty, meritorious conduct, &c. There is a decrease of 2 in the number refused renewal as compared with 1875. In addition to those refused renewal, the licences of 6 drivers and 1 conductor were revoked during the year by the Commissioner of Police for misconduct.

It is to be observed that in the majority of offences set forth in Table 51, page 57, particularly as regards the drivers of hackney carriages, &c., the law empowers the magistrate to inflict fines not exceeding 40s., or the alternative of a month's imprisonment.

331 new licences and transfers of hackney carriages and cabriolets were granted during the year, in each instance the vehicle, horse, &c., being inspected and pronounced fit for public use, and the character of the person licensed ascertained to be satisfactory.

621 applications were made for drivers' and conductors' licences during the year; 554 were granted, character being found good; 23 refused, character being unsatisfactory, 5 unable to read, 1 having impediment in speech, 1 suffering from paralysis, 1 previously charged for lunacy, and 36 failed to follow up applications.

312 hackney carriages and 346 cabriolets were noticed by the police to be slightly out of repair during the year; the owners were not summoned nor their licences suspended, but time was allowed them to effect the necessary repairs. This system is adopted where the subject of complaint is of a trivial nature, and a better result is obtained than would be from summons.

* Loss of property at one fire, in June, 1875, computed at £179,000.

The licences of 5 hackney carriages and 2 cabriolets were suspended in 1875 for being unfit for public accommodation. There was no licence revoked for bad repair during 1876.

Property found in Hackney Carriages.

Property found in cabriolets and on hackney carriages by drivers during the year 1876, and how disposed of:—Surrendered to police.—In 798 instances there were 1,160 articles of property surrendered, of which 698 articles were claimed by and given up to the owners at the Police Office, Exchange Court, and 25 at the various police stations within the district, making a total of 723 articles claimed; the remainder were sent to the Police Store, Lower Castle Yard. The articles surrendered included upwards of 460 umbrellas, gold brooches and bracelets, 2 pairs of gold ear-drops, a gold watch, a silver watch and other articles of jewellery, also several opera glasses, portmanteaus containing wearing apparel, and a gold mounted sword, 7 sovereigns and 5 half sovereigns, which were received in mistake for coins of lesser value in payment of fares (3 of the sovereigns were claimed, and the remainder were sent into store); also bank notes, gold, and silver, amounting to £76 7s. 9d. (of which sum £9 7s. 2d. was not claimed, but sent into store); also cheques value for £166 13s., half of a £10 note and half of a £5 note—(the cheques were claimed, but the half notes were not claimed).

Property when surrendered at the police stations (except in Kingstown division), if not claimed immediately, is forwarded to the carriage branch of the Detective Department, 3, Exchange-court, where it remains for a week, and if not claimed within that time it is sent in to the police store.

Recipients of property left rewards for drivers to the amount of £19 12s. 7d. during the year.

The police on carriage duty, in the course of their inquiries after property reported as forgotten in hackney vehicles, ascertained that the drivers had surrendered direct to the owners 15 umbrellas, a gold watch, a purse containing £2 and some silver, a sovereign, a half sovereign, 3 opera glasses, a masonic apron, 4 rugs, 2 carpet bags, containing wearing apparel, 2 coats, and 2 trunks, contents unknown.

Police Force.

The effective strength of the police force on the 31st December, 1876, was 1,101 men of all ranks.

Since the increase of pay granted from December, 1872, the force has been fully kept up, without any difficulty, to its authorized strength. The recruits who have joined since the period mentioned, are of a better class than those presenting themselves for enlistment during several preceding years. The average height of the men of the force is 5 feet 10½ inches; average weight, 12 stone 11½ lbs.

Police Band.

The Dublin Metropolitan Police band consists of thirty-three members (police constables), who in addition to attending band performance, also do duty on the streets. The band was established on the 2nd of August, 1873, and the expenses connected with its support are wholly defrayed by subscriptions from the officers and men of the service.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

HENRY ATWELL LAKE, Colonel,
The Commissioner of Police.

No. LVI.—TABLE showing the Number of Hackney Carriages and Cabriolets noticed by the Constables on Carriage Duty in their respective Districts, as being unfit for Public use, from the bad state of repair of the Vehicles, or by means of bad Horses; and whether the Licences of the Vehicles were Suspended or Revoked by the Commissioner of Police in consequence, during the year 1876.

| Suspended, | | | | | | |
| Sum Total, | 3 | 4 | 1 | 3 | 11 | |

Note.—The licences of 3 cabs and 3 hackney carriages were suspended in 1876, for being unfit for public use from bad repair, showing an increase of 10 cabs and hackney carriages. In some instances bad vehicles were discovered by the police giving for hire, and when brought to the notice of the owners they were at once taken to the police's premises, where the necessary repairs were effected, and consequently the licences were not suspended. There was no licence revoked for bad repair since the year 1875. When the licence of a vehicle is revoked, the owner is under the obligation to produce a good vehicle and pay over again what it cost him to take out the licence in the first instance. This provision is only granted to him if the owner is in the habit of giving bad vehicles, or otherwise endeavours to evade compliance with the law in this respect. In case of a suspension the vehicle is not let to hire until the defect complained of is corrected, and on inspection, if pronounced fit for public accommodation, the licence is restored by the Chief Commissioner. There were 212 hackney cars and 115 cabs noticed by the constables on carriage duty during the year 1876 in full repair, the number of which were not suspended, and the licences suspended, but then given them to effect the repairs. This system is adopted when the state of complaint is of a trivial nature, and a better result is had from it than by suspending the licence. A general inspection of all hackney carriages and cabs was held in May last, when the inspecting officers reported 1,055 vehicles as fit for public accommodation. There were 57 vehicles not produced; the number of 5 of these vehicles were lost, and 46 were retained by the magistrates, and the remaining 11, after the lapse of a few days, were produced by the owners in proper working order.

* This Return, of course, only refers to men who joined previous to January, 1862: none of the men who joined since that date having, at 10th, completed their 25th year in the service.

The undermentioned Gratuities were granted under the Dublin Act of 1845 during the year, by Medical Boards, and paid out: the average service of each was 22½ years.

P.S.—This Return is published to show the improvement in the 12½ years which would be made, per cent. of the men who join it to complete the Period of Service which entitles them to a Pension—viz., fifteen years.
