

Annual Policing Plan 2008
Dublin Metropolitan Region
(Western Division)

Foreword by Chief Superintendent John Twomey

The 2008 Policing Plan for the Dublin Metropolitan Region (Western Division) is based upon the six strategic goals set out in the 2008 National Garda Annual Policing Plan which is the second of a three year cycle towards the implementation of the Garda Síochána Corporate Strategy 2007-2009.

The strategic goals in this plan indicate the determination of An Garda Síochána to confront the key policing challenges of State Security, Crime Prevention and Reduction, Road Safety and Public Order. It includes strategic imperatives to underpin our commitment to our vision of 'excellent people delivering policing excellence'.

Through pro-active policing, we will engage with the Community to build a Garda service that reflects the priorities of the people. We will take responsibility for the National Actions and Performance Indicators as well as those within our own Division and we will be accountable for our actions to those we serve and to ourselves.

The policing of our society is best achieved through partnership with all parties including, inter-alia, Government Stakeholders, the Community, the democratically elected representatives along with the voluntary and business sectors. Each of these stakeholders has its own distinctive perspective and inputs to offer.

I, together with all staff in Dublin Metropolitan Region (Western Division), am committed to delivering a professional policing service by building our capacity and capability to perform all our policing activities to the highest attainable Professional, Ethical and Human Rights standards.

I would welcome comment from interested parties, which will assist me in achieving the objectives of this plan.

John Twomey
Chief Superintendent
