ROYAL IRISH CONSTABULARY OFFICE,
DUBLIN CASTLE.

8 th March 1922.

R.I.C JOINING OTHER POLICE FORCES.

Officers and men of the R.I.C. are now at liberty to join any other Police Force, including the Palestine Gendarmerie, for which they have been accepted. It will not effect their R.I.C. pension rights except as regards suspension whilst actually serving with such other police Forces. They will be seconded for such service until the final disbandment of the R.I.C.

(Signed) C.A.Walsh.
