Re: Freedom of Information Request FOI-000407-2016. Refused.

Dear

I refer to your request, dated 14th November 2016 and received on the 15th November 2016 which you have made under the Freedom of Information Act 2014 (FOI Act) for records held by An Garda Síochána.

Part 1(n) of Schedule 1 of the FOI Act states that An Garda Síochána is listed as a partially included agency "insofar as it relates to administrative records relating to human resources, or finance or procurement matters". Therefore, only administrative records that relate to human resources, finance or procurement shall be considered

Your request sought:

- How many members of An Garda Síochána (AGS) have been found guilty of criminal offences in 2015 and in the first nine months of 2016?
- What convictions were members of AGS found guilty of and what disciplinary action was taken subsequently?
- What ranks were the members of AGS who were convicted of offences?

I wish to inform you that I have decided to refuse your request on the 8th December, 2016.

The purpose of this letter is to explain my decision.

1. Findings, particulars and reasons for decision.

A search was conducted in the disciplinary section of Human Resources & People Development in Garda Headquarters to identify the records sought in your request. The information contained in the records has been reviewed and is ‘personal information’ in character.

Under section 37 of the FOI Act the Head of a public body shall (mandatory) refuse to grant an FOI request if access to the record concerned would involve the disclosure of personal information. Personal information is defined under section 2 of the FOI Act and includes the following.

Section 2 – Interpretation

2. (1) In this Act—

“personal information” means information about an identifiable individual that, either—

(a) would, in the ordinary course of events, be known only to the individual or members of the family, or friends, of the individual, or

(b) is held by an FOI body on the understanding that it would be treated by that body as confidential, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, includes—

(vi) information relating to any criminal history of, or the commission or alleged commission of any offence by, the individual,

(vii) information relating to any proceedings for an offence committed, or alleged to have been committed, by the individual, the disposal of such proceedings or the sentence imposed by any court in such proceedings,

Section 37 – Personal Information

I am refusing to provide the records you seek as it is my opinion that the information contained therein comes within the ambit of the definition of Personal Information as per section 2 of the FOI Act. The provision of these records to you would be releasing personal information which is prohibited by the FOI Act.

This decision is made in accordance with section 37(1) of the FOI Act.

Section 37 of the FOI Act states;

“(1) Subject to this section, a head shall refuse to grant an FOI request if, in the opinion of the head, access to the record concerned would involve the disclosure of personal information (including personal information relating to a deceased individual).”

In applying section 37(1) of the Freedom of Information Act, a public interest test must be applied to ensure the actions taken are done so in the best interest of the public.

Public Interest Test

As per section 37 of the FOI Act I have considered the public interest issues which arise in this case and have taken account of the following factors in favour of release:

- Ensuring openness and transparency of Organisational functions to the greatest possible extent,
- The public interest in members of the public exercising their rights under the FOI Act,
- That there is more than just a transitory interest by the public in this information,
- The right to privacy is outweighed by the needs of the public.

In considering the public interest factors which favour withholding the records I have taken account of the following:

- Allowing a public body to hold personal information without undue access,
- The public interest does not override the right to confidentially retain the personal information of staff,
- That the Organisation can conduct its business in a confidential manner,
- That there is a reasonable and implied expectation by employees that sensitive personal information will remain confidential.

A Public Interest Test was carried out when considering the release of the personal information but having balanced the factors both for and against the release, I decided that the public interest in preserving the personal information and the reasonable expectation that information can be maintained in a confidential manner by An Garda Síochána in the context of its disciplinary proceedings outweighs the public interest which would be served were the records released to you.

2. Right of Appeal

In the event that you are not happy with this decision you may seek an Internal Review of the matter by writing to the address below and quoting reference number F01-000407-2016.
