A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St John 15: 9-13

Jesus said to his disciples, "I have loved you even as my Father has loved me.

Remain in my love.

When you obey my commandments, you remain in my love, just as I obey my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

I have told you these things so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be full.

This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you.

There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.

You are my friends if you do what I command. Love each other".

The Gospel of the Lord

Opening Prayer

Let us pray:

Eternal Lord God, in whose perfect kingdom, no sword is drawn but the sword of righteousness and no strength known but the strength of love:

Be present with us today as we remember and give thanks for the members of An Garda Síochána who have died in the line of duty, serving our communities as Guardians of the Peace.

We gather in the presence of God, who holds the keys of life and death.

We pray with compassion for all who have been killed or injured through violence and acts of terrorism throughout the world and in this land and whose names are inscribed in the roll of honour in this place. Today we especially remember Detective Garda Colm Horkan who was tragically killed on duty last year.

We ask the Lord in great mercy, to change the hearts and minds of the men and women of violence to a way of peace and reconciliation.

We pray for our President, An Taoiseach and all our leaders that they may be inspired to work for justice and peace and to have the wisdom and integrity to use their power for the betterment of our nation especially during this Covid-19 pandemic. May we listen to their advice and follow all guidelines laid down for our safety.

We pray for the families and friends of An Garda Síochána, whose loved ones were killed in service; particularly their wives, husbands, partners, children, siblings and parents. We also pray for the retired members of the force. They all have an important and treasured place in our lives. May the Lord grant them the warmth of His love and reward them with peace and contentment.

Finally, we pray for all our Gardaí and the members of the PSNI as they carry out their duties with diligence, honesty and good humour especially in this critical phase of our nation's history. May they and their families be kept safe in their daily duties.

This prayer we offer to God as we say together –

*Our Father, who art in heaven
Hallowed be Thy Name;
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.*

Prayers Of The Faithful

The Lord is our help and our shield, so let us make our prayer to God, with confidence
