Foreword by Chief Superintendent David Roche

The DMR (East) Garda Division Policing Plan for 2009 is based upon the six strategic goals set out in the DMR (Regional) Policing Plan 2009 and the National Policing Plan 2009. This is the final year of a three year cycle towards the implementation of the Garda Síochána Corporate Strategy 2007-2009. The Garda Corporate Strategy 2007-2009 sets out the Vision, Mission, Values and Strategic Imperatives which is the foundation on which we will pursue our Strategic Goals. Within that framework, the DMR (East) Garda Division Policing Plan sets out the priorities of this Division for the next 12 months.

Policing Plans for Dun Laoghaire (F) and Blackrock (W) Garda Districts are drawn up using the framework of the Divisional, Regional and National Policing Plans with particular emphasis placed on their specific District needs.

The policing of our society is best achieved through a partnership process, involving An Garda Síochána and the democratically elected representatives of the people in conjunction with the community, voluntary and business sectors. Each of these partners have their own distinctive perspective and inputs to offer. My primary objective is to strengthen our links with the community we serve by developing partnerships through meaningful consultation and listening to their concerns to support the shared objectives of delivering an improved Garda Service.

Our success will ultimately be measured by the Community we serve. I recognise that the public expects high levels of service from each personal contact with every member of An Garda Síochána in this Division and we will strive to fulfil these expectations. I am committed to delivering a professional policing service based on engagement with the community, by building our capacity and capability to perform all our policing activities to the highest attainable professional, ethical and human rights standards.

I welcome and encourage feedback from interested parties on any aspect of the Policing Plan now being embarked upon for 2009 which could assist me in achieving the objectives of the plan.
