Dublin Metropolitan Region South Central Division Policing Plan 2009

FOREWORD

I am delighted to present the Policing Plan for the Dublin Metropolitan Region (South Central Division) which is based upon the six strategic goals as set out in the National Garda Annual Policing Plan and the Garda Corporate Strategy 2007-2009.

Policing in this Division in 2008 was of the highest standard and I am committed to continuing this level of service by building on our capacity and capability to perform our policing duties to the highest attainable professional, ethical and Human Rights standards. I believe that our goal is to deliver a Garda service that reflects the priorities and needs of our community that is problem oriented and focused on achieving a safer environment to live and work, without fear.

We will continue to focus policing on local needs and priorities through community policing, visibility and the quality of contact with the community, while maintaining an ability to deal with major incidents, operations and investigations. I have consulted within the business and residential communities, partner agencies, Garda personnel from DMR (SC) and adopted the priorities of the Garda Commissioner and the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform in devising targeted responses to concerns raised. Most importantly I will focus on how we deliver our service ensuring it is balanced, reasonable, proportionate, and delivered with respect for all persons.

This Division continues to enjoy very high ratings in policing and I ask that together, we strive for even higher standards to do justice to the excellent work done on the streets by our people each and every day.

(John Twomey)
Chief Superintendent
