

D.M.R.East
Divisional Policing Plan
2010

Dublin Metropolitan Region

'Working with our Communities'

Foreword

I am pleased to introduce the Annual Policing Plan 2010 for the DMR East Division. An Garda Síochána's Corporate Strategy 2010-2012 sets out the Vision, Mission, Values and Strategic Goals which is the foundation on which we will pursue our Strategic Goals. Within that framework the DMR (East) Garda Division Policing Plan sets out the goals of this Division over the next 12 months. These goals will in turn be reflected in the Policing Plans developed in each of two Districts in the DMR East Division.

Our success will ultimately be measured by the Community we serve. I am cognisant of the potential impact of the changed economic circumstances which face us and have every confidence that with continued dedication and perseverance that we will deliver an excellent policing service to the communities we serve. I am committed to delivering an optimum policing service based on engagement with the community, by maintaining an effective response to crime and antisocial behaviour, making our roads safer and an improved sense of security for everyone in the community.

The Mission Statement of An Garda Síochána is "Working with Communities to Protect & Serve". It is therefore incumbent on us to respond appropriately to the day to day policing needs in an efficient and effective manner. It is imperative that we continue to deliver a professional policing service in a manner which reflects the core values of Honesty, Accountability, Respect and Professionalism.

We remain committed and strive to achieve the highest standards while providing a professional police service to all communities.

Philip Moynihan
Chief Superintendent

VISION

`Excellent people delivering policing excellence`

MISSION

Working with Communities to Protect and Serve

VALUES

Honesty - Being honest and ethical and adhering to the principles of fairness and justice

Accountability - Accepting individual responsibility and ensuring public accountability

Respect - Having respect for people, their Human Rights and their needs

Professionalism - Providing a professional policing service to all

Draft Priorities for An Garda Síochána for 2010 Determined by the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform

Background

The function of the Garda Síochána under section 7 of the Garda Síochána Act 2005 is to provide policing and security services for the State with the objective of:

- (a) preserving peace and public order,
- (b) protecting life and property
- (c) vindicating the human rights of each individual
- (d) protecting the security of the State,
- (e) preventing crime
- (f) bringing criminals to justice, including by detecting and investigating crime,
- (g) regulating and controlling road traffic and improving road safety; and carrying out such other functions conferred by law, including those relating to immigration.

In producing his policing plan the Garda Commissioner is required to have regard to the priorities of the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform and to the Garda Strategy Statement. The Commissioner is also required to have regard to relevant Government policy. This includes the provisions of the Programme for Government and the specific Government strategies in relation to drugs, youth justice, victims of crime, road safety, and on domestic and sexual violence.

Priorities for 2010

The Minister has determined the following matters as priorities for the Garda Síochána for 2010, in accordance with Section 20 of the Garda Síochána Act 2005.

Security

To protect the State and the people against terrorism in all its forms.

Crime

To combat serious crime, in particular organised crime.

Policing Communities

To achieve the maximum levels of safety for local communities.

Customer Service

To complete and implement a Garda Charter which will improve the Garda response to calls for service and which will contain commitments on the level of community policing service which the public can expect from Gardaí.

Roads Policing

To police the roads, in particular to reduce the number of deaths and serious injuries arising from collisions.

Human Trafficking

To prevent and detect human trafficking and to protect victims.

Ensuring our Nation's Security

Ensuring our national security is a core commitment for An Garda Siochána. This goal demonstrates our unwavering focus on guarding national security and in playing an active role in strengthening international security. We are fully committed to maintaining a secure nation for all our communities
