

An Garda Síochána
Policing Plan 2011
Westmeath Division

‘Working with our Communities’

Foreword

As we begin a new year, I am pleased to present the Westmeath Divisional Policing Plan for 2011. The divisional plan outlines the strategic objectives for the Westmeath Division and sets out the implementation structure to meet the objectives outlined in An Garda Síochána's Strategy Statement 2010-2012, An Garda Síochána Policing Plan 2011 and the Eastern Region Policing Plan 2011. The plan also incorporates the priorities determined for An Garda Síochána by the Minister for Justice and Law Reform under Section 20 of the Garda Síochána Act 2005.

The Strategy Statement 2010–2012 outlines the core values of An Garda Síochána as Honesty, Accountability, Respect and Professionalism. These core values are intrinsic aspects of the Westmeath Divisional Policing Plan for 2011.

The priority areas in this plan are State security, confronting crime, effective roads policing, working with communities and the development of an excellent organisation. These priority areas will be focused upon as the organisation works with communities to protect and serve.

Gardaí in the Westmeath Division remain committed to working with local communities to provide a quality police service that meets the needs of people. All personnel in the Westmeath Division are committed to our core activity of preventing and detecting crime and we will strive to work with communities to provide a peaceful and safe environment to live. We will also endeavour to make our roads safer through enforcement, education and working in partnership with other agencies. In achieving these goals An Garda Síochána is committed to providing excellence in its service delivery.

The Commissioner has stated that the primary function of An Garda Síochána is to ensure people feel safe, on the streets and in their homes. All personnel in the Westmeath Division are committed to this objective and I am confident we will rise to meet the challenges presented in 2011 and are committed to achieving the goals outlined in our Divisional Policing Plan for 2011.

Willie Ryan
Chief Superintendent
