

Foreword

It is my pleasant duty to present to you the Annual Policing Plan for the Cork North Garda Division. A considerable consultation process was initiated to identify the policing priorities for the Division.

The plan reflects the vision, mission and values of An Garda Síochána, as articulated in our Strategy Statement 2010-2012.

The Plan also reflects the national priorities of the Minister for Justice and Equality and the strategic objectives set out by the Garda Commissioner.

Every effort has been made to place the issues and priorities of the communities we serve at the centre of our ambitions for 2012.

My commitment is to nurture, maintain and strengthen the close ties that exist between An Garda Síochána in Cork North Division and the community throughout the Division.

My core ambition is to prevent and detect crime in all its forms, to disrupt criminal activity, and to confront drug users and the suppliers of illegal drugs.

Road safety and public safety are key concerns of mine and every effort will be made by all Garda personnel in the Cork North Division to maintain progress in these areas.

I am committed to ensuring a quality frontline Garda service for all, utilising to best effect the resources and equipment available to my workforce.

Both my management team and I are available to discuss any aspects of policing that you wish to have considered. I have included contact details of my senior management team in the Districts of Fermoy, Midleton, Cobh, and Mallow, for your information.

I am confident that the challenges associated with the coming year can be successfully met through the professional commitment of An Garda Síochána and the continued support and cooperation of the varied communities and other stakeholders in the Cork North Division.

(W.G. DILLANE)

VISION

`Excellent people delivering policing excellence`

MISSION

Working with Communities to Protect and Serve

VALUES

Honesty - Being honest and ethical and adhering to the principles of fairness and justice

Accountability - Accepting individual responsibility and ensuring public accountability

Respect - Having respect for people, their Human Rights and their needs

Professionalism - Providing a professional policing service to all communities

Policing Priorities for An Garda Síochána for 2012

Determined by the Minister for Justice and Law Reform

Background

The function of the Garda Síochána under section 7 of the Garda Síochána Act 2005 is to provide policing and security services for the State with the objective of:

- (a) preserving the peace and public order
- (b) protecting life and property
- (c) vindicating the human rights of each individual
- (d) protecting the security of the State
- (e) preventing crime
- (f) bringing criminals to justice, including by detecting and investigating crime
- (g) regulating and controlling road traffic and improving road safety and carrying out such other functions conferred by law, including those relating to immigration

In producing his policing plan the Garda Commissioner is required to have regard to the priorities of the Minister for Justice and Equality and to the Garda Strategy Statement. The Commissioner is also required to have regard to relevant Government policy. This includes the provisions of the Programme for Government and the specific Government strategies in relation to drugs, human trafficking, youth justice, victims of crime, road safety, and on domestic and sexual violence.

Priorities for 2012

The Minister has determined the following matters as priorities for the Garda Síochána for 2012, in accordance with Section 20 of the Garda Síochána Act 2005.

Security

To protect the State and the people against terrorism in all its forms.

Crime

To combat serious crime, in particular organised and white collar crime.

Policing Communities

To provide a policing service which meets the needs of local communities

Roads Policing

To continue to reduce the number of deaths and serious injuries on our roads arising from collisions.

Efficient use of resources

To promote efficiencies in resource allocation and deployment so as to enhance the policing service to the public.

Victims of Crime

To support and protect all victims of crime and treat them with dignity. To keep all victims of crime informed about the progress of their cases.

Domestic and Sexual Violence

To prevent domestic, sexual and gender-based violence and to effectively tackle such violence when it occurs.

Human Trafficking

To prevent and detect human trafficking.

Ensuring our Nation's Security

Ensuring our national security is a core commitment for An Garda Síochána. This goal demonstrates our unwavering focus on guarding national security and in playing an active role in strengthening international security. We are fully committed to maintaining a secure nation for all our communities.
