Foreword from the Roscommon / Galway East Divisional Officer.

The Roscommon / Galway East Garda Divisional Policing Plan sets out to achieve the objectives as outlined in the Garda Corporate Strategy document 2007 - 2009 and in particular to achieve the highest attainable level of personal protection, community commitment and state security within the Division.

In the pursuit of achieving our Goals, we will continue to engage and seek new partnerships with statutory, voluntary agencies and community representatives. This is essential for effective, efficient and accountable policing.

At a local level our policing strategy will adopt a community engagement and problem solving approach, thereby empowering local communities and community policing teams to engage in joint community safety initiatives. Our community safety programmes will be guided and implemented in accordance with our community safety vision and the new partnership provisions of the Garda Síochána Act, 2005.

The commitment in this plan is to provide a service of equality and total customer satisfaction by consultation with you as a customer in providing a visible Garda presence, an effective response to crime and anti-social behaviour, and an improved sense of security for the people who live, work, visit and travel through, County Roscommon and east County Galway. Our ultimate goal is to make this Division a safer place through policing excellence.

In the Garda Public Attitudes Survey 2006, the Roscommon / Galway East Garda Division had an average 86% satisfaction rating and going forward into 2007 we are committed to improving that rating. We value the opinion of our community in the Roscommon / Galway East Garda Division and accept criticisms and compliments and to that end we have provided leaflets at the counter in each Garda Station in the Division, which provides you with the opportunity of giving your opinions and views on the service provided by our members. As feedback on the provision of our service is essential you can also make your comments on the Garda website at www.garda.ie

Signed: Philip Moynihan.
Chief Superintendent.
