

Child Safeguarding Statement

(Prepared in accordance with section 11 of the Children First Act 2015)

1. Name of Service

Garda Síochána

2. Nature of service & principles to safeguard children from harm

Section 7 of the Garda Síochána Act 2005 provides that:

(1) The function of the Garda Síochána is to provide policing and security, including vetting, services for the State with the objective of —

- (a) preserving peace and public order,
- (b) protecting life and property,
- (c) vindicating the human rights of each individual,
- (d) protecting the security of the State,
- (e) preventing crime,
- (f) bringing criminals to justice, including by detecting and investigating crime, and
- (g) regulating and controlling road traffic and improving road safety.

(2) For the purpose of achieving the objective referred to in subsection (1), the Garda Síochána shall co-operate, as appropriate, with other Departments of State, agencies and bodies having, by law, responsibility for any matter relating to any aspect of that objective.

Personnel employed by the Garda Síochána have a responsibility and duty of care to ensure that every child availing of the service is safe and protected from harm as defined in the Children First Act 2015. The Garda Síochána by its inherent nature adheres to legislation to mitigate the risk to children. This forms the fundamental basis of policy and guideline documents within the organisation. The policies and procedures outlined in this Child Safeguarding Statement apply to all personnel employed by the Garda Síochána, with a view to ensuring the highest possible level of safeguarding of children is provided.

The Garda Síochána is committed to safeguarding children & for this purpose takes cognisance of relevant provisions of the Constitution of Ireland and relevant legislative provisions.

3. Risk Assessment

A comprehensive risk assessment has been undertaken, with a view to identifying potential risks that may arise for children when interacting with the Garda Síochána, which informs this Child Safeguarding Statement.
