Mr Conor Sharkey

Re: Freedom of Information Request FOI-000294-2017 Request Refusal

Dear Mr. Sharkey,

I refer to your request, dated and received on 03rd July, 2017 which you have made under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2014 for records held by An Garda Síochána.

Part 1(n) of Schedule 1 of the FOI Act states that An Garda Síochána is listed as a partially included agency "insofar as it relates to administrative records relating to human resources, or finance or procurement matters". Therefore, only administrative records that relate to human resources, finance or procurement shall be considered.

Your request sought:

Under the FOI Act, can I request any documentation held by An Garda regarding the disappearance in 1994 of schoolgirl Arlene Arkinson.

Can I also get any information held by An Garda on Robert Howard, the man suspected of murdering her.

Arlene vanished following a night out in Bundoran and was last seen in the company of convicted child killer Howard.

I am aware that an inquest into Arlene Arkinson's disappearance is ongoing in the North however I would point out that an inquest is not an investigation or a trial and therefore I feel any information held by An Garda should be made available under the FOI Act,

I wish to inform you that I have decided to refuse your request on the 3rd July, 2017.

The purpose of this letter is to explain my decision.

1. Findings, particulars and reasons for decision.

1

I advise that An Garda Síochána became subject to Freedom of Information under the FOI Act, 2014. Under Part 1 of Schedule 1 of the FOI Act a number of agencies were defined as “partially included” and An Garda Síochána is listed as one of them at Part 1(n).

The FOI Act specifically states that An Garda Síochána is subject to the Act in relation to “administrative records relating to human resources, finance or procurement matters” only.

The term “administrative records” is understood to mean records relating to the processes of running and managing a business or organisation. As a result the FOI Act excludes operational policing business as opposed to the defined administrative processes of An Garda Síochána.

The records you are requesting relate to operational policing matters and do not meet the criteria of administrative records as defined in the Act. Therefore your request must be refused.

1. Right of Appeal

In the event that you are not happy with this decision you may seek an Internal Review of the matter by writing to the address below and quoting reference number F01-000294-2017.
